

School System and Education

30.10.2019 |

Education and learning statistics provide information on activities of state, private and church schools and schools establishments respectively. These include in particular data on kindergardens, primary schools, secondary schools and universities, feeding in schools, scholarships and school facilities.

Data sources are state statistical surveys of the Ministry of Education of the Slovak Republic performed by Institute of Information and Prognosis of Education.