

Key documents

Posledná aktualizácia:23.05.2013

Key documents constitute a set of documents that characterize the Statistical Office at the highest management level – they specify its mission, the scope of competence and tasks, lay down activity principles and internal structure / organization of the Office, define commitments in the sphere of quality management and document how the objectives are met in particular areas of activity of the Statistical Office of the SR.