

Programme

DGINS conference 2014:
Implementation of Vision 2020 - draft agenda

24 September 2014

9:30-10:00	Introduction by the host, the PG Chair and the Director General of Eurostat
10:00-11:00	Five priority areas for implementing ESS Vision 2020
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-12:00	Five priority areas for implementing ESS Vision 2020 - continued
12:00-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-15:00	ESS.VIPs the way forward
15:00-15:15	Coffee break
15:30-17:00	Governance of the ESS Vision implementation
17:00-17:30	Conclusions: next steps

DGINS conference 2014: Towards global business statistics

25 September 2014

9:00-9:30 Opening

- Aija Žigūre, President of the Latvian Statistical Office
- Walter Radermacher, Director General of Eurostat

9:30 - 12:30 Session I
Towards global business statistics:
addressing current shortcomings which hamper a global picture

Chair: Ms. Helena Figueira, Eurostat

9:30-9:40 Introduction by the chair

9:40-11:15 Discussion based on selected papers

Konrad Pesendorfer (Statistics Austria): Inconsistencies of current European business statistics hampering cross-country comparisons.

Jean-Luc Tavernier (INSEE): Global vs. European vs. national vs. regional statistics: which business statistics are we aiming at?

Giorgio Alleva (ISTAT): Integration of business and trade statistics: limitations and opportunities

Refreshments will be served at 10:30

10:45-11:15 Plenary discussion

11.15-12.00 European Profiling – what is it and why is it important?

Peter Fullerton (ONS), Hank Hermans (CBS Netherlands) and Jean-Luc Tavernier (INSEE) present main features of and own experience with European Profiling.

12.00-12.15 FRIBS

Eurostat presents the key elements of FRIBS and their relationship with the ESS Vision 2020

12:15-12:30 Conclusions by the chair, end of Session I

Preparation of the Riga Memorandum

12.30-14.00 Lunch break

14:00h - 17:30h Session II Towards global business statistics: ESS solutions and further developments
--

Chair: Stefan Lundgren (Statistics Sweden)

14:00-14:15: Introduction by the chair

14:15-16:45 Discussion based on selected papers

Bert Kroese (CBS Netherlands)

Monitoring globalisation indicators

Padraig Dalton (CSO Ireland)

Global Value Chains, business statistics and National Statistical Institutes

Jørgen Elmeskov (Statistics Denmark)

*Towards better measuring the activities of enterprises and covering services in a better way: The concept of Business
Functions*

Refreshments will be served at 16:00

16:15-16:45 Plenary discussion

16:45-17:00 Conclusions by the chair, end of Session II

17:00–17.30 Conclusions and closing statements

- Riga Memorandum and concluding remarks: Walter Radermacher, Eurostat
- Next host NSI on the 2015 DGINS Conference

