Dear users of statistical information,

I would like to present you the Statistical Yearbook of the Slovak Republic 2022, the most extensive and comprehensive collective publication produced by the Statistical Office of the SR. The 32nd edition of this title continues to be a unique source of high-quality and reliable information covering all areas of the Slovak life.

The publication provides current data on the Slovak Republic for the year 2021 in 31 thematic chapters, on almost 700 pages and in more than 400 tables. These data are presented in the context of the previous four years and selected key national economic indicators for a period of 14 years. It also includes data comparing Slovakia with other EU countries and several visualizations of the development of selected parameters.

The data on the economy in the country during 2021, especially on the development of the economy, as well as on the production or turnover of individual sectors of industry, construction, tourism, internal trade and other sectors of the economy are an integral part of this collective publication.

It contains information about the life of the population and areas that affect it, i.e. demographic processes, labour market, education, healthcare, culture and social aspects, differences between the roles of men and women in society, as well as about the crime and traffic accidents. The data also provide an insight into the state and protection of the environment, science and research spending or innovations in enterprises. This year, we have also included the basic outputs from two extensive surveys, namely from the 2021 Population and Housing Census and also from the 2020 Integrated Farm Survey.

The most important collective publication of the Statistical Office of the SR has currently undergone substantial changes. Since 2022, it no longer has a book, but only an electronic form and is fully available free of charge on the portal of the statistical office www.statistics.sk. All tabular outputs are available electronically, which will greatly simplify and facilitate work with data. Demanding users can find the numerical tables directly linked to the public DATAcube. database, from which information can be obtained in longer time series or in more detailed structures.

I thank users for their suggestions and comments helping to improve this product and all partner institutions for providing data for this complex work.

At a time of misinformation and hoaxes, the Statistical Office of the SR continues to remain an independent, trustworthy and professional provider of objective and verified information obtained from the state statistical surveys and reliable external sources. I believe that the content of this publication represents a unique source of information for work, creating analyses and will help users make responsible and balanced decisions useful for the society as a whole.

Notice

Unless otherwise specified in the heading or a legend to the table, the area the data refers to (country, region, etc.) is the territory of the Slovak Republic.

Unless the name of the table or the note under the table contains the size of published data, this is the data on the whole economy of the SR (including imputation for the organization of up to 19 employees, tradesmen, or the whole population).

As to the data published according to certain classifications (for example Statistical Classification of Economic Activities, Standard International Trade Classification, etc.) the names of indicators in English do not always correspond to literal names in Slovak language, but they are given according to the international classification, or an abbreviation is used.

The names of the countries are abbreviated, not always in official version.

Differences in sums and ratios result from rounding the data. Unless explicitly stated, the published data are definitive.

Until 2008 financial data are recalculated by conversion course declared on July 8, 2008, 1 EUR = 30,1260 SKK.
